Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management Signs on as Official Sponsor of Hainan Rendez-Vous 2010

April 2nd – 4th, 2010, Sanya, China

HONG KONG January 25, 2010

Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management (PWM), one of the region's leading private banks, has signed an sponsorship with the Hainan Rendez-Vous event, China's first luxury lifestyle event which will be held in Sanya April 2-4, 2010.

Hainan Rendez-Vous 2010 will be held over three days and combines Asia's largest private jet show with leading yacht brands collection, the most exclusive collection of luxury homes and holiday resorts, and a luxury show on a 5,000 sqm exhibition space. Over 150 invited clients will be specially flown in to Sanya by private jet for the event - which is expected to attract more than 4,000 Chinese Ultra High Net Worth Individuals (UHNWIs) across Asia.

"Our sponsorship of Hainan Rendez-Vous is a reflection of both the scale and growth of Deutsche Bank in China and the private bank's longstanding global commitment to address the complex needs of the ultra high net worth individuals in China," said Lok Yim, Head of North Asia, PWM, Deutsche Bank. "This sponsorship with Jet Rendez-Vous allows Deutsche PWM to present our clients with investment opportunities in business aviation and lifestyle activities in China – which has become increasingly popular with UHNWIs in the last two years."

More than just a union of shared values and a reflection of an active partnership, this collaboration will see Deutsche Bank PWM extend to visitors at Hainan Rendez-Vous its financial expertise. In a showcase of its reputation as one of the leading global provider of financial solutions for sophisticated clients, the Bank's Chief Economist for Greater China Jun Ma will be hosting a series of private dialogues with selected UHNWIs at Hainan Rendez-Vous 2010.

"HNWI in China are looking for new opportunities to expand their investment portfolio, particularly through the acquisition of private jets and mega-yachts," said Wang Dafu, Chairman of Visun Real Estate Co. Ltd. and host of the event. "Hainan Rendez-Vous is well established as a high-profile affair with proven high-quality attendance and solid sales results for yacht and jet manufacturers. Having a strong financial partner such as Deutsche Bank supporting the event is a fantastic opportunity for us and for potential jet and yacht buyers."

Held in Hainan for the first time, The Hainan Rendez-Vous will run from April 2 to 4, 2010, at Sanya's Visun Marina and the Sanya International Airport where the static display of business jets will be held.

About Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management

Deutsche Bank Private Wealth Management (PWM) is the division of Deutsche Bank that focuses on the needs of high net worth clients around the world. Deutsche Bank PWM manages a total of EUR 182bn in invested assets through its network of over 90 locations in more than 30 countries worldwide. In Asia Pacific, invested assets as of September 30, 2009 is Euro 23 billion. This also represents 28% increase from Eur 18 billion (since 31 December 2008) to Eur 23 billion (30 September 2009).

Deutsche Bank PWM also has more than 700 staff located across 14 offices in nine markets spanning North Asia, Australia, Southeast Asia and India. The business offers its clients an extensive range of investment products and services coupled with strategic advice to keep our clients ahead of the curve. This includes securities and mutual funds, foreign exchange, structured products, alternative investments, liquidity and credit products and advice in trust and fiduciary.

Deutsche Bank has been named "Private Bank of the Year", by respected trade financial publication AsiaRisk. The magazine cited Deutsche Bank PWM's ability to leverage on its connectivity with its investment bank to provide private clients with access to unique investment opportunities - that would otherwise have been unavailable to them.

Deutsche PWM also delivered a standout performance in the fifth Asiamoney annual Private Banking Poll 2009. It outshone competitors and emerged the top private bank in nine out of 24 categories under the winning banks by country category – which represents the countries where the main private banks of respondents are located. This is significantly more than any single private bank competing in the same category.

In China - one of the strategic markets in the region - Deutsche PWM secured the top spot in the USD 5.01 to 25m category. For India and Singapore, the Bank also dominated the US 1 million – 5 million, US$5.01 million – 25 million and > USD25.01 million Assets Under Management (AUM) categories. This is the third consecutive year since 2007 that the Bank has led the polls in India. For Singapore, it is the first time that the Bank won in all three AUM categories, a significant achievement in a demanding market.
